

Game specifications:

-Game title: Two players car race

-Logic: Two players car race is a game where two people can compete with each other using cars of their choice. It contains multiple levels with different difficulties (easy, medium and hard).

Each level will have different path and the cars can get faster if they gain money coins. To win the race, the car must finish 3 laps of the path in less time than the other car.

